

"Current Garlic Prices Have Fallen Steadily"

In the past few weeks, the market situation for garlic has changed. In the European market, many domestic garlic are also on the market. Has this affected Chinese garlic exporters to some extent? Mr. Reynold said that he shared his share of the current market operation: "Compared with the previous season, our export volume in this season has steadily increased, and customers are more satisfied with our products, more recognized by our services, Our company is also more trusted. Thanks to this, our competitiveness remains as strong as before, without being affected by too many external factors, and our number of customers is increasing. "

"At present, the China Garlic Price has steadily decreased. Most people think that the price will fall after the Spring Festival. For all customers' purchase orders, we use strict standards to require factories to process the goods to make them happy with the products. Focusing on supplying high-quality products, we try to stand out from the competition. In addition, we have our own brand and also operate customer brands. Building our own brand can make our products more recognizable in foreign markets, but also Can help us improve our corporate image. "

"Our main exporting countries are Europe and Central and South America. In these markets, our number of customers is increasing and our business is continuing to grow. In the future, while steadily developing existing markets, we hope to develop new market areas . "
